

WIDOW GETS MOST OF PERKINS' ESTATE

Secretary and Other Employees Remembered in Will.

NEW YORK, June 23.—George W. Perkins, philanthropist and financier, who died last Friday at Stamford, Conn., left the bulk of his estate to the widow and two children, according to his will filed here. The exact amount was not given but the value was placed "in excess of $1,000,000." No public bequests were made.

Miss Mary Kimm, his secretary for more than 27 years, received a bequest of $50,000 with a $5,000 annuity for the remainder of her life. Every other person who was in his employ for a year or more, was bequeathed $100 for each year of service.

Mrs. Evelyn B. Perkins, the widow, inherited all real estate, household effects, works of art, jewelry, five stock and automobiles in addition to a portion of the residuary estate, as shared with the daughter, Dorothy, and Geo. W. Perkins, Jr. Fifty thousand dollars was bequeathed to a sister, Emily S. Perkins, of Riverside, besides the income from a trust fund of $150,000.

A codicil attached to the will proper, which dealt with bequests to employees, contained provisions for 13 servants and certain former employees in the Riverside mansion.

The executors are the members of the immediate family and Lewis Deland of New York city.

SOCIALISTS SCORE IN ELECTION IN BERLIN

BERLIN, June 23.—Independent socialists scored an overwhelming victory in the first election for the municipal council since the inclusion of the council in Greater Berlin which next to New York, now is the largest city, so far as area is concerned.

Eighty-eight out of the 226 of the were won by independent socialists, while the social democrats elected 38 councilors. These two socialist factions which co-operate in municipal politics, therefore, will have a decisive majority.

Issues on which the election were fought dealt mainly with the food question, wages, cheap transportation and others of a public utility nature.

RESTAURANT FREED ON PASTOR'S CHARGES

NEW YORK, June 23.—Peter Galotti, proprietor of a restaurant in the territory which was ruled over by the head of former Police Inspector Dominic Henry following charges of the Rev. John Rosh, Stratton, of Calvary Baptist church here, that liquor was being openly sold there, was found guilty on that particular count in federal district court yesterday.

He was convicted of another count, however, based on evidence of police witnesses that he procured liquor in his restaurant April 5, subsequent to the time the liquorman visited the place. Galotti was sentenced to 10 days in the Tombs and fined $500.

JOHNSON AND BRYAN PICKED BY '48'ERS

LINCOLN, Neb., June 23.—Senator Hiram Johnson and Wm. J. Bryan were inducted as third party candidates at a meeting of Nebraska members of the committee of 48, called to name delegates to that organization's convention in Chicago, July 19. More than 30 delegates to the Chicago meeting were selected.

DEFECTIVES INCREASE.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 23.—While under prohibition the number of jail inmates has decreased 25 per cent and jail costs have been reduced in the country by half a million dollars since July 1, 1919, when prohibition first went into effect, there is a reported increase in the number of defectives in the number of defectives.

Burdette G. Lewis, commissioner of the State Prison, declared here yesterday that Lewis was the chief speaker at a joint meeting of the American Association of Public Officials of Charity and Correction and the National Conference on Education of Backward Children.

FIRE IN HOSPITAL.

WILMINGTON, N. C., June 23.—Fire originating near the operating room on the third floor of the James Walker Memorial hospital here late yesterday greatly damaged the building and for a time threatened to destroy it. Firemen gained control of the situation after an hour's strenuous work. All patients were removed to a place of safety unharmed. The total damage from fire and water will approximate $25,000.

CARGO JETTISONED.

LONDON, June 23.—One thousand tons of the cargo of the American steamer Waco have been jettisoned in an effort to refloat the ship. The Waco, which is hard aground at Rabbit Island, off the south coast of Ireland, apparently is not seriously damaged and is not making water. A wrecking crew is standing by to render assistance. The prospects of hauling the stranded vessel into deep water are favorable.

EDWARDS TAKES FLIGHT.

KEYPORT, N. J., June 23.—Gov. Edwards, christened and was a passenger in what is believed to be the largest civilian-owned passenger flying boat in the country here yesterday. The hydroplane carried 18 passengers on its first flight of 40 miles. They included a man and woman 80 and 70 years old, respectively.

HEADS ALABAMA SCHOOLS.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 23.—John W. Abernethy will assume the duties of state superintendent of education for Alabama July 1, having been appointed by Gov. Kilby after Superintendent Spright D. Howell was chosen president of Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

Anti-Sinn Feiners On Way To Frisco

CHICAGO, June 23.—Damarest Lloyd and Randolph W. Smith, officers of the Loyal Legion, an organization which they said was opposed to "Sinn Fein activities in the United States," were in Chicago yesterday on their way to San Francisco, where they will seek a hearing before the Democratic convention platform committee.

Mr. Lloyd said telegrams had been sent to Democratic leaders declaring that "American public opinion is rapidly awakening to the fact that the Sinn Fein agitation does not deserve the support or sympathy of the American government, nor of political parties hoping to appeal successfully to the American people."

WOMAN KILLED WHILE WATCHING HIGH FIRE

BALTIMORE, Md., June 23.—Fire which started in the fourth floor of a building at Baltimore and Howard streets, occupied by Blumberg Bros. Co., and S. Goldstein & Sons, swept the three upper floors yesterday, causing damage estimated at $200,000.

Mrs. William Roberts and her niece, Miss Esther Della, and Norma Winter, were standing at a street corner when a salvage corps truck on the way to the fire struck an automobile. The machine was thrown to the sidewalk, striking Mrs. Roberts and fracturing her skull. She died instantly.

CLAIMS UP TO BAKER FIRST, COURT RULES

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Concerns holding informal war contracts which have not been settled finally must obtain action on their claims from the secretary of war or definite refusal from the secretary to act before jurisdiction will be assumed by United States district court of claims under the Dent act providing compensation for the holders of such contracts. The decision was given by the court of claims yesterday in the case of the United States Bedding company of St. Paul, Minn.

SAYS BRITISH MISSIONS TO U. S. AIDED FRIENDSHIP

LONDON, June 23.—The sending of more than 3,000 Englishmen to the United States on war missions was the most powerful force for maintaining friendly relations between the two countries, declared Sir Henry Robinson Smith, former assistant royal commissioner of the United States, speaking at the American Luncheon club.

These 3,000 men, John Blair MacArthur, president of the club, said in reply, were now "America's best propagandists in Great Britain."

GOULD DIVORCE HEARD.

PARIS, June 23.—The divorce case of Frank Jay Gould versus Edith Kelly Gould came up in the divorce court of the French courts yesterday. Former Premier Viviani, representing Gould, argued that the French tribunals were incompetent to try the case which he declared was exclusively the province of the American courts. Prosecutor of the Republic Wattine will sum up June 23.

TWO SEEK DIVORCE.

OPPOSES SURCHARGES.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Opposition to a surcharge on the railroad tickets of Pullman car passengers was expressed yesterday by the Pullman company, in a petition filed with the Interstate Commerce commission. The railroads previously had filed a statement estimating that if Pullman passengers had paid a surcharge of one-half cent a mile during 1919, $7,900,000 additional revenue would have been produced for the railroads. Application of such a surcharge would increase Pullman rates 120 per cent over those in effect before May 1, 1920, the Pullman company held.

Blood Was Bad

A Prominent Georgian Suffered From Many Blood Troubles Until Relieved By Taking Ziron

"I had been having rheumatism and feeling very much off for some time," says Mr. G. M. Tatum, of Cohutta, Ga.

"I began having risings, or spring sores. I felt all run-down. I didn't feel like working. I didn't have any appetite, and when night came I was restless."

"I felt tired when I got up. I had a bad feeling all over."

"I knew by the sores, that I had had blood."

"I decided to take Ziron, as I heard that was what it was for—the blood."

"It certainly was just what I needed. The little bottle began to dry up. My skin got clearer, I felt so much better, it seemed I could see better."

"I began to eat, and now I can hardly get enough. I feel like a different man."

"I certainly can and do recommend Ziron. I feel fine."

"If you should fail to derive any benefit from your first bottle of Ziron, the druggist from whom you buy it will refund your money."

"What is Rheumatism?" is a question that has not yet been answered entirely satisfactorily. There are still different opinions as to its exact cause, but little doubt that its pains are real.

The medical profession is practically agreed upon one point, however, and that is that Rheumatism is more than a series of local pains, and that the real cause of the disease is deep-seated, and can not possibly be reached by remedies applied to the surface.
